Release of Liability

The undersigned participant and his/her parent/legal guardian agree to hold Educational Media Company at Virginia Tech, the Virginia Association of Journalism Teachers and Advisers, and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, their employees, trustees, officers, volunteers and agents harmless from any claims, damages, losses and/or expenses arising out of participation in camp activities and to assume all liability for any and all personal injury, bodily injury, illness or property damage that occurs as a result of participation in such camp activities. Signature of this agreement also warrants that participation is voluntary and that the participant and undersigned have read and understand the camp policies. The participant agrees to obey all rules and policies mandated by camp personnel.

It is imperative that all student participants in JCAMP are covered by health insurance for the term of the camper's attendance. In addition, the participant and his/her parent/legal guardian agree to give Educational Media Company at Virginia Tech and its representatives permission to provide emergency medical response and/or treatment as needed for any injury or illness that may occur while the participant is involved in camp activities and agree to release Educational Media Company and its representatives from all liability arising out of such treatment. In case of medical emergency, the participant or his/her parent/legal guardian will be fully responsible for all expenses.

The undersigned participant and his/her parent/legal guardian also give permission for photographs and/or video to be taken during the activities at JCAMP. These images and video will remain the property of Educational Media Company at Virginia Tech and may be used in publications and marketing campaigns for future workshops.
